

All Good in the Hood

Jamiroquai

Don't kick me when you know
I'm down baby
I've got my reasons
but you're cherry picking love grenades
Throwing them at me again Don't let me see you with a sad face
Don't wanna see ya
Smashing up all those dreams
That's the way it's always been All good
In the hood tonight
Did I forget to mention
A little bit of tension makes the world alright (makes the world alright) And there's some pain
You can't do without
That's the pain you're tasting
When you started walkin' out Ooh mercy mercy
It's a hard game
When love is war
And war will never be the answer
I feel that rage again This is the storm
You love to ride on Your face s thunder
Tears are falling down like rain
On my window pane
(Keep on sayin' it) All good (all good in the hood tonight)
In the hood tonight (all good in the hood tonight)
Did I forget to mention
A little bit of tension makes the world alright And there's some pain
You can't do without
That's the pain you're tasting
When you started walkin' out Walkin' out on me yeh, walkin' out walkin' out on me yeh, walkin' out walkin' out on me yeh, walkin' out All good (all good in the hood tonight)
In the hood tonight (it's good in the hood tonight)
Did I forget to mention
A little bit of tension makes the world alright And there's some pain
You can't do without
That's the pain you're tasting
When you started walkin' out walkin' out on me yeh, walkin' out
walkin' out on me yeh, walkin' out

walkin' out on me yeh, walkin' out
