G-Song

Supergrass

As I walk into the night
I don't feel that my feet have touched the ground
And I want to carry on
But I can't see anyone who'd take the timeThere may be troubles in your mind
Maybe tomorrow could be fineI feel like goin' home
But I don't know if I'm up or comin' down
And I feel there's somethin' wrong
But I know it's just the time it takes to climbThere may be troubles in your mind
Maybe tomorrow, you could be fine
