

Mono Messiah

Metro

Iâ€™m not your Hollywood Scarlatti or your rock â€™nâ€™ roll Rossetti or the magazine cover of your gypsy-jade lover Iâ€™m not the screen apparition or the teenage physician

Iâ€™m the Mono Messiah of your stereo desire

Baby you pulled my shipwrecked star
back together
Baby tonight our star is rising
forever
Oo, it had to come

Like your rock â€™nâ€™ roll religion Itâ€™s on the Eve of Distraction And your bodyâ€™s in collision with your mother-earth attraction but now the glitter is over and youâ€™ve found the new direction o my space-age Madonna enjoy your Resurrection

Baby you pulled my shipwrecked star
back together
forever
Oo, it had to come

Now youâ€™re higher than the headlines
Enjoy your reputation
You know youâ€™ve got the power to be the New Sensation

Baby you pulled my shipwrecked star
back together

Oo, it had to come
