All In My Head

Toxic Lab Rats

Canâ€™t feel the ground Iâ€™m walking on Canâ€™t see the town Iâ€™m walking through Donâ€™t give a fuck about the ones I meet
Just heading on, looking down at my feet

I donâ€™t need no-one
I might need someone
I donâ€™t need no-one
Somebody help me I really donâ€™t know what to do

First time we meet and you start to speak
Asking what my problem is, why I look weak
Mind your own business. Iâ€™m here to drink
I need some time, hell I need to think

I donâ€™t need no-one
I might need someone
I donâ€™t need no-one
Somebody help me I really donâ€™t know what to do

Believe me, you canâ€™t see
My worries, my problems from the past
I kinda need you know
Donâ€™t stab my back as Iâ€™m walking out the door

I trust you, I must do
Or is it all in my head you are my friend
I kinda need you now
Donâ€™t stab my back as Iâ€™m walking out the door

Are you still here I donâ€™t wanna talk
Just wanna continue my endless walk
The easiest way - put your feelings on hold
Or maybe thatâ€™s just something that Iâ€™ve been told

I donâ€™t need no-one
I might need someone
I donâ€™t need no-one
Somebody help me I really donâ€™t know what to do

Believe me, you canâ€™t see
My worries, my problems from the past
I kinda need you know
Donâ€™t stab my back as Iâ€™m walking out the door

I trust you, I must do
Or is it all in my head you are my friend
I kinda need you now
