The Deserter

36 Crazyfists

Take deeps breaths in and gather the night
A hole that's hardly summed up by taking away
Time unlocks the stall
When there's nothing left to lose, nothing can be lostI don't know if anything has changed
But the hope of that changes everything
Hope builds changeIsn't the place of the plagues that surround me
And my open graves
But it's the fate of the haze that put darkness in my way, I escape
I escape darkness in my own wayFatal has become the solid fight
Unending endings that loom into my darkest
Light unlocks my falls
When there's nothing left to lose, nothing can be lost
