Coloured Bedspread

Annie Lennox

Bright lights are going dim

I wanna hide again

The nights are caving in

On my coloured bedspreadI wanna drift so far

To slip out of the crowd

It doesnt matter how

On my coloured bedspreadWell make the stars dissolve

Like sugar melting in my mouthSome people come and go

But they wont ever know

About the things we do

On my coloured bedspreadI remember places Ive been to

Remember things I never knew

Remember dreams that all came true

On my coloured bedspreadWe make the stars collide

I touch the planets through your eyesOoh, can you feel it?

Tell me, can you feel it?

Now, can you feel it?

Tell me, can you feel it?Now, can you feel it?

Tell me, can you feel it?

Now, can you feel it?

Tell me, can you feel it?Well make the stars dissolve
Like sugar melting in my mouthBeneath my coloured bedspread
Beneath my coloured bedspread
Beneath my coloured bedspread
