

Cat's In The Well

Bob Dylan

The cat's in the well, the wolf is looking down

The cat's in the well, the wolf is looking down

He got his big bushy tail draggin' all over the groundThe cat's in the well, the gentle lady is asleep

Cat's in the well, the gentle lady is asleep

She ain't hearin' a thing, the silence is a-stickin' her deepCat's in the well and grief is showin' its face

The world's being slaughtered, it's such a bloody disgraceCat's in the well, horse is going bumpety-bump

The cat's in the well and the horse is going bumpety-bump

Back alley Sally is doin' the American jumpCat's in the well and papa is reading the news

His hair's fallin' out and all of his daughters need shoesThe cat's in the well and the barn is full of the bull

The cat's in the well and the barn is full of the bull

The night is so long and the table is, oh so fullCat's in the well and the servant is at the door

The drinks are ready and the dogs are goin' to warThe cat's in the well, the leaves are startin' to fall

The cat's in the well, the leaves are startin' to fall

Goodnight my love, may the Lord have mercy on us all

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>