

Enough's Enough

Asia

So early in the morning
It's the same now every day
Sign your name and number
Cutting from the ball and chain
Never letting go when
The weight was so deceiving
Treading on a turning wheel
Machinery is screaming
Shoulder to the stone again
Praying for the evening
Hiding as the fist hits steel
Never letting go when
The weight was so deceiving
Treading on a turning wheel
Enough's enough, it's eye to eye
Enough's enough, we cry
Enough's enough, of smoke and steel
Enough's enough of turning this wheel
Looking at his picture
Steel did turn the skin to bone
Father I remember

The hands that had to break the stone
Never letting go when
The weight was so deceiving
Treading on a turning wheel
Enough's enough, it's eye to eye
Enough's enough, we cry
Enough's enough, of smoke and steel
Enough's enough of turning this wheel
Of turning this wheel
Never letting go when
The weight was so deceiving
Treading on a turning wheel
La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
[Incomprehensible] are holding you
La, la, la, la, la

La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
[Incomprehensible] are holding your hand
