

Broken Bridges

Toby Keith

There are bridges on life's highway
But we never see them there
Some cross troubled waters
And some don't go nowhere Some you wouldn't step on
If you're trying to save your soul
One comes with a keeper
When it's time to pay the toll Some aren't meant to last forever
Some are made of stone
Some are meant to cross together
Some you go alone Some the slightest wind can send them
Crashing to the ground
I set our bridge on fire
But I could not burn it down And here I am
Praying for forgiveness
And I can see you
Standing on the other side And here I go
Baby, it's a heavy load
And I have crossed
Some broken bridges in my time Now here I am
Praying for forgiveness
I can see you
Standing on the other side Here I go
And buddy, it's a heavy load
But I have crossed
Some broken bridges in my time 'Cause I have crossed
Some broken bridges in my time
