

Fall Into You

Justyna Kelley

the velvet sky closing in the sweet surrender to the heat of your skin and i cant help it if i cant help it if i
cant help it if i fall into you
i fall into you
and i know you want me too fall into you cant hold back its to late souls on fire just wont wait

falling feels like flying feels like were not even trying close your eyes and give into me now a velvet sky closes in and i cant help it if i fall into you
