

Blow Ya Mind

Styles P

She said her name was Nicki
She came to play and her body was sicken
She gets what she wants, so sexy when she talks
Oh, you know she gon' blow your mind We getting all to bump they little head
I got 'em like, oh, which one of them I'ma dead
'Cause when they get sick, they start to cough bread
So cough up that bread Body looks right plus we crop heads
The Rolls Royce Phantom, yeah, the drop head
And that just goes to show I'm that bitch
I 26 inch the rims with black lips And this is the anthem, this, this is the anthem
And this is the anthem, this, this is the anthem
Any, any, any, all in ya, any
The way I put the pussy on ya chinny chin chinny She said her name was Nicki
She came to play and her body was sicken
She gets what she wants, so sexy when she talks
Oh, you know she gon' blow your mind Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa
Tell that nigga, not to drink no mo
Thinking that it's hot, ya really just so so
That's just a ridiculous 44 Fuck, I look like all that Pull up in the all black
Suede on my floor mat
Bad bitch format Ros'e, call that
Don't expect a call back
'Cause I'm international
Tell him to call me Borat This is the anthem, this, this is the anthem
This is the anthem, this, this is the anthem
Any, any, any, all in ya any
Way I put the pussy on ya chinny chin chinny She said her name was Nicki
She came to play and her body was sicken
She gets what she wants, so sexy when she talks
Oh, you know she gon' blow your mind What the fuck I look like?
What the fuck I look like?
What the fuck I look like?
What the fuck I look like? What the fuck I look like?
What the fuck I look like?
What the fuck I look like?
What the fuck I look like?
I'ma bad motherfucker She said her name was Nicki
She came to play and her body was sicken

She gets what she wants, so sexy when she talks
Oh, you know she gon' blow your mind
