Now

Linda Eder

Even now... I remember all the empty spaces
You filled with love
Even now... Every corner of the world we shared
Is still filled with love
Even now... not a day goes by
When I don't ache for you
Through my tears I still hear your laughter even nowStars still shine bright when they're gone
Hearts that break will still beat on
Letting go's the hardest thing to do
'Cause all those feelings start
And time can't change my heart
It all leads back to youEven now... you are in my dreams and in my dreams
You always will be
Even now... You're the one true thing that brings my heart
Back home to me
When I'm scared... I can close my eyes
You are there... Ever young
And somehow, I can always find you even nowFrom all the memories kept inside
To all the dreams we knew, the rush of you
Will always be a part of me
