Useless

Osker

No heart, no time
Can't even fucking try and speak a notion
Not of your own, is only taken as a threat
Why won't you pay attention?No hope, no change
It's like this every single day
Why talk, when we could listen?
Why do I bother going outside
Interaction is my first mistakeAnd I'm trying to be of use
But how can I help if you keep tryin' to Tell me to get away?Psychology reason, your abusive mannerisms?
I don't have the time to pay sympathy to your tragedy
High maintenance, problematic
If I'm a asshole, why do you still call me?
This stupid fucking chase serves only to consume energyAnd I'm trying to be of use
But how can I help if you keep tryin' to
Tell me to get away?And I'm trying to be of use
But how can I help if you keep tryin' to
Tell me to get away?And I'm trying to be of use
But how can I help if you keep tryin' to Tell me to get away?
