

Technical Difficulties

2CELLOS

About 700 days and ways inside this changing mind is failing twisiting turning eyes are burning and nothings workingare we failing? talking cheaply deepen feelings
no one's thinking
solving problems. intervening
nothing is workingare we failing?

nothing is working nothings working eyes are burning nothings working we are experiencing technical difficulties
we are experiencing technical difficulties
we are experiencing technical difficulties please stand by we are
we are
we are experiencing technical difficulties nothings working please stand by introspection leads to rejection
foolish draining sound of laughter confusion is our silent partner and nothings working introspection
and nothings working we are
we are
we are
please stand by we are
we are
we are experiencing technical difficulties goodbye.
