When You Decided to Leave

Lucero

When you decided to leave
I never asked where you'd gone
When you decided to leave
I left you aloneit don't mean much to me
What all you did while you're gone
It don't mean much to me
As long as you come homeI try to be a good man
But I've done so wrong for so long
I don't know if I can
Help but be a bad manI know that you loved me once
And I took for granted the time
I know that you loved me once
When you were minewhen you decided to leave
I was so young and so bold
And then you decided to leave
I got tired and oldI try to be a good man
But I've done so wrong for so long
I don't know if I can
Help but be a bad man
