

Unknown Road (Intro) [Live]

Pennywise

So you're currently content with your surroundings
You possess a vague sense of accomplishment
You give all you had to give, did you give conservative
Think that all the years that passed you by we're all well spent
Pictures of everyday life spark memories
And certain things pull triggers in your mind
What would be different now if you were there than here
What passages, what fantasies lie just beyond the unknown road
Do you know, the miracles that could be found
They're waiting down the unknown road, so it goes
A few more cornerstones that could be yours
Ever get the thought you were mistaken?
Ever think about the stones you've left un-turned?
More chances slip away with every passing day
Suffering with cold you're so afraid, you might get burned
And wondering can take it's toll yeah
And wondering you can rack your skull
And wondering can send your imagination up a tree
Wondering what fantasies lie just beyond the unknown road
Do you know, the miracles that could be found
They're waiting down the unknown road, so it goes
A few more cornerstones that could be yours
Time is right now of the essence
Time is right to learn your lessons
Time is all on your side
Time is all that you have left
Things you've, you've contemplated
The unknown road is one
Things you've, you've contemplated
The unknown road is one
Things you've, you've contemplated
The unknown road is one
Things you've, you've contemplated
The unknown road is one
