All Is Vanity

Spock's Beard

And when we touch the future dies
(And when we touch the future dies)
I see the face of my demise
(I see the face of my demise)
I'm all alone without a friend
(I'm all alone without a friend)
I see my fate, my bitter end
(I see my fate, my bitter end)Thought, I was the bigger man
But all I've done is a grain of sand
Thought, I gave the best of me
But all it was, was vanityAll is vanity
All is vanity
