

Hate 2 Love Her

Blake Lewis

She loves the finer things, gold and diamond rings
Give her the moon but wouldn't be enough
She wants the perfect man, has a perfect plan
And nothing I do could ever live up
But I'm falling, alright, and she's falling, alright
We're heading for perfect disaster
And I'm falling, all night and she's falling, tonight
But wait till the morning
I know that I hate her, even though I love her
She's making my heart hurt, I can't describe, describe
How I hate her, every time I'm with her
All I do is want her why do I even try
I give her all I've got to give
But she makes it so hard to live
And I do everything I can but she wants
She wants, she wants, she wants a perfect man
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh, oh
My love's the simple kind but it's hard to find
With anyone else they would get in line
But she's all that I can see something's wrong with me
'Cause all that she wants I could never be
But I'm falling, alright and she's falling, alright
We're heading for perfect disaster
And I'm falling, all night and she's falling, tonight
But wait till the morning
I know that I hate her even though I love her
She's making my heart hurt, I can't describe, describe
How I hate her every time I'm with her
All I do is want her why do I even try
I give her all, I've got to give
But she makes it so hard to live
And I'd do everything I can but she wants
She wants, she wants, she wants a perfect man
Everything about her, every time around her
She's in control like it don't matter

Just another body swinging for show
I'm underrated, rehabilitated ready to go
But can't she understand that I know, I know
But I'm falling, alright and she's falling, alright
We're heading for perfect disaster
And I'm falling, all night and she's falling, tonight
But wait till the morning
I know that I hate her even though I love her
She's making my heart hurt I can't describe, describe
How I hate her every time I'm with her
All I do is want her why do I even try
I give her all, I've got to give
But she makes it so hard to live
And I'd do everything I can but she wants
She wants, she wants, she wants a perfect man
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh, yeah
