

Blackbird Pie

The 69 Eyes

all hail the gates of darkness all hail the gates of night i'm coming a long way dancing just gimme sweet sweet lady another slice of your piesing a song for six pence a pocket full of rye
ten and twelve blackbirds
baked in a pie
kill the king of darkness
steal the queen of night
and down comes a blackbird trying to peck off your eye thank you for your highness thank you for your wine i'm leaving before the sunrise traveling with the shadows by my side
one last kiss of good-bye sing a song for six pence
