

A Lie Will Always Defeat the Truth

From Autumn to Ashes

Weight leaves in anger from my shoulders

Words of wisdom crush hope

What is real? I thought I knew How could I lie to someone, I cared for?

How could you lie to me? Your words, pierced me For good, this was done, in the end the truth will shine

To instill truth in your heart, I beg and plead for you

A lie from your lips will make me cry out in pain

As I wish for you to go away How could I lie to you? I cared for you

How could you lie to me? Your words pierced me
