

On a Beach

Richard Ashcroft

I've, I have swum those ragin' seas
Washed up by an ocean who had tired of me
How I survive, I will never know
But this wreck's got a home and a whole lot of hope I'm out on a beach, sat on a rock
Thinkin' of you and the love I've got
I saw the Devil's servant, I sent her home
I said, "Bring me your master, I don't want his dog" I'm on fire, I'm full of a new desire
I'm on fire, I'm full of love and new desire
Full of love and new desire I lit my fire, blew my conch, nobody comes
I built my boat from bamboo, but it sunk
I looked at the sky for vapor trails, nobody comes
I wrote your name on a tree along with the days
This has taken you away from me I'm out on a beach, eatin' my heart
Thinkin' of you and the love I've got
I saw the Devil's servant, I sent her home
I said, "Bring me your master, I don't want his dog" But, I'm on fire, I'm full of a new desire
I need somebody like you
(I'm on fire)
I'm not afraid to die
I'm not afraid to die
(There you go)
Not afraid to die I'm out on a beach, eatin' my heart
Thinkin' of you and the love I've got
I saw the Devil's servant, I sent him home
I said, "Bring me your master, I don't want his dog" I'm out on a beach, sat on a rock
Thinkin' of you and the love I've got
I saw the Devil's servant, I sent her home
I said, "Bring me your master, I don't want his dog" I'm out on a beach, sat on a rock
Thinkin' of you and the love I've got
I saw the Devil's servant, I sent her home
I said, "Bring me your master, I don't want his dog" [Incomprehensible]
