

Lost & Catatonic

Swallow The Sun

Failure, victim, nothing
Bleeding, losing, everything Failure, victim, nothing
Bleeding, losing, everything I was never the one
In their eyes no one will
I am lost and catatonic I laid them all to rest
The demons inside of me
I am lost and catatonic Bury my heart
In your icy womb
I am lost and catatonic Away from the light
Into earth's silent tomb
I am lost and catatonic
Choking, cursing, shattering
Blame, blame, blame
Burning, cutting, I'm vanishing
Shame, shame, shame Walls are closing in
They're staring
Shade's still chanting
Run, do it, done? Brake your vows of trying
Let them suffer in longing
Be remembered
...for nothing? I was never the one
In their eyes no one will
I am lost and catatonic I laid them all to rest
The demons inside of me
I am lost and catatonic
Bury my heart
In your icy womb
I am lost and catatonic Away from the light
Into earth's silent tomb
I am lost and catatonic Felt the pain
But I numbed it down
Crowded steets
But no one's around These kingdoms of dust
These empires of loneliness
We are lost and catatonic Walk through me you all
Curse you, you heartless
We are lost and catatonic Failure, victim, nothing
Pain, pain, pain
Cutting, burning, I'm vanishing

Shame, shame, shame I was never the one
In their eyes no one will
I am lost and catatonic I laid them all to rest
The demons inside of me
I am lost and catatonic Bury my heart
In your icy womb
I am lost and catatonic Away from the light
We are lost
