Clean

Sneaker Pimps

I had a dream
Last night
They came into my arms
And I held you so tight
The sky was blackAnd in the streets
I watched a thousand babies burn
How can I get myself, get myself clean
I watched a thousand babies burn
How can I get myself, get myself cleanIt's gonna take a million watefalls to wash away the sin
The sun went black
And for it's kiss
I nailed a thousand silver nails into my savior's wristAnd he said girl, see what I mean
It's gonna take a million waterfalls to wash yourself, wash yourselfClean
I watched these thousand babies burn
And in the midst of my, midst of my dream
I watched these thousand babies burn, baby burn baby burn
Clean
I watched these thousand babies burn, baby burn baby burn
