

Patience (Demo)

Trapt

Scattered dreams
Circling
I'm getting no where
Time to change the scene
I'm sorry that i just can't get it
I'm too impatient to wait so long for this Follow me down
To this broken promise, this dying vision
And everything is falling down all around me
The longer you are from me the longer it takes to get..
Maybe i'll build up everything matters
For one more day with you
Why can't i get through
I'll never find an answer
I'm still tied to you I see its over
Still realize
That i can go falling through your eyes
Who am i now
Who have i found
Oh you know how to play so please dont waste this dream Follow me down
To this broken promise, this dying vision
And everything is falling down all around me
The longer you are from me the longer it takes to get..
Maybe i'll build up everything matters
For one more day with you
Why can't i get through
I'll never find an answer
I'm still tied to you
And i'm still tied to you Please dont waste this dream
Follow me down
To this broken promise, this dying vision
And everything is falling down all around me
The longer you are from me the longer it takes to get..
Maybe i'll build up everything matters
For one more day with you
Why can't i get through
I'll never find an answer
I'm still tied to you Maybe i'll build up everything that matters
For one more day with you
Why cant i get through

I'll never find an answer
I'm still tied to you
