

Tomorrow

Stone Temple Pilots

These endless days are wait for me
Tearing my heart that breaks for you
I'm coming home tomorrow Though you're not lying next to me
I hear your song that calls to me
I'm coming home tomorrow
Back in your arms Tomorrow's just a dream I can't detain
It's like a fall I can't contain
And though it seems so far away
It's just a day, a lonely day away The summer's gone and I can see
The season's end is set me free
I'm coming home tomorrow
Back in your arms Tomorrow's just a dream I can't detain
It's like a fall I can't contain
And though it seems so far away
It's just a day,
A lonely day away Tomorrow I'm coming home
Tomorrow I'm coming home
I'm so tired and so alone It's like a dream I can't detain
It's like a fall I can't contain
And though it seems so far away
It's just a day,
A lonely day away
