

Why Keep On Breaking My Heart

Nina Simone

Why keep on breaking my heart
When it's beating for you, only you?
Why do you toy with my dreams
They depending on you to come true?
When you invaded my mind
You took over complete control
Then, I surrender to you
All my dreams, my heart and soul
Please say, there's a chance that some day

You may feel just the way, that I do
But, why keep on breaking my heart
When it's beating for you, only you?
Why keep on breaking my heart
When it's beating for you, only you?
Say, why keep on breaking my heart
When it's beating for you, only you?
