

Thousand Glasses

Minority 905

Verse 1:

Here you are again messing around with my head
And getting me to think about you in circles
I'm overthinking again, caught up in all this small talk
Even though you most likely don't care at all

This is dangerous, too treacherous to see
Can't let my guard down, when you're around me

Chorus:

I confess that I still think about you
Every now and then
When I'm lying down on my bed
And I admit that every time I look at you
Your green eyes cut as deep as a thousand glasses

Verse 2:

I know it's been a while,
But still that same stupid smile
Still gets me every time the way it used to
And I get flashes of last November
I doubt you'd even remember
How much you brought me up before you
Tore me down

And it seems that time won't heal the broken-hearted
And I'm willing to start over again
But I sure as hell don't want to be your friend

[Chorus]

Bridge:

Forgive me I can't pretend that everything is gonna be the same
Forgive me I can't forget that I never wanted only this

[Chorus]

Outro:

This is dangerous, too treacherous to see
Can't let my guard down when you're around me
