

Wicked Rebel

Slightly Stoopid

Bring me me echo, kick down the treble
Watch the bass line come to bring but the wicked rebel
Bring me me echo, kick down the treble
Watch the bass line come to bring but the wicked rebel Then me call the Dr. Moor
Who's got the chronic in his right hand
Say when you smoke it down
Boy, then you called upon the right man The smoke is clearing and the walls start shaking
What is this now prescription drug, you know that I be taking
He say, "Son, you've got to take it but at least three times a day"
Said, "But if you wanna be quick and livin' in the irie way" "But, won't you pick it up
Before it gets knocked down
You've got to pick it up
Pull the seed straight out from the ground
You've got to pick it up, boy
Before the one who come to steal your ganja" Said he come up quick behind you
To bring back what he stole
Before you come to found out
