

Purpose

Coyabalites

I believe in your purpose baby
Coming up to the surface and maybe
I'll never see you again, then again who knows
 Make me quiver, hands'll shiver
 Still got all the things that I woulda give her
 Yeah, yeah but it's slow going
 Something's showing yeah, yeah
They say love is a stream that will find its own course
 Making due is a thing, a thing I will do no more
 Whenever you come back I'll be waiting
 Trifling the slack no head gating
 This is all pure fiction you know that's right
 Just pure fiction, that's all right
 I believe in your purpose baby
 Coming up to the surface and maybe
 I'll never see you again, then again who knows
 Make me quiver, hands'll shiver
 Still got all the things that I woulda give her
 Yeah, yeah, but it's slow going
 Something's showing yeah, yeah
