Tyga

it's getting real tonight, you aint the only bitch on my mind i can make you feel alright, but i ain't gonna fuss a fight every girl i see i like, so why wanna waste your time?
you know the deal uh? i'm right ya i'm for real love, i'm right, it's gettin real tonightmy time ticker on tres, fucking all night, midnight sex she ride like my old bitch, but she already knew that she feel me even when i'm gone, pillows between her legs, now she comfortable extend your back vovo , volcano when the shit explode, boom picture me tied down for life, i flash too bright, picture won't look right i need god advice dealing with these lady mice girls like planes enter the next flightit's getting real tonight, you aint the only bitch on my mind
i can make you feel alright, but i ain't gonna fuss a fight
ya i'm for real love, i'm right, it's gettin real tonightphone just filled with hoes, conversation goes, back and forth what you doing? chilling like eskimos?

freaky ass scorpio she ride me like carnivos and i'm horny though, sex in the morning though
