No Need to Be Human

Coroner

A new day's born
After a long hard ride
So I'm on my way
To a place called homeBut now I'm here
Lost between machines
Watching gray, mute faces
Go on and destroy their livesWhy do you do this, stop it now
'Cause in fact you're innocent
Like a new born childWhy do you do this, stop it now
'Cause in fact you're innocent
Like a new born childIdentity's lost, no need for names
Identity's lost, no need for ideas
Identity's lost, no need for resistance
Identity's lost, no need to be humanWhy do you do this, stop it now
'Cause in fact you're innocent
Like a new born childWhy do you do this, stop it now
'Cause in fact you're innocent
Like a new born childWhy do you do this, stop it now
'Cause in fact you're innocent
Like a new born childWhy do you do this, stop it now
'Cause in fact you're innocent
Like a new born child
