Lovedust

Luna

When candles light themselves
And the air turns creamy
Why not take a photograph?
You look so dreamyThen stand in the blackness
Smile at the tinkling
Blinded by lovedust
What did I see?A million, a billion, a trillion stars
A million, a billion star
I'm bad with faces
And worse with names
But the last glove is happy
Its all the sameI set a trap for you
But I'm the one who's all caught up
Blinded by lovedust
This is what I saw
A million, a billion, a trillion stars
A million a billion stars
A million, a billion, a trillion stars
A million, a billion stars
