Pure Trauma

Downset

GoI'm still there
I'm still there
So you think you're familiar with meWell, I passed long before you
Looked in these eyes
Went on, vanished, left this temple young
On a crowded bedsidePiercing voices, high screams
Through a stained yellow wall
Long before you spoke words to me
I departed on perpetual nightfallI'm still there, pure trauma
Frame by frame, pure trauma
I'm still thereReach right through me
And I know you question my unsteady motion
Wanted to lay myself to rest long ago
But my life sings on, onThinking it would blow into a petty dust of gathering
Nothing but visions flourish
Through the hallways of my mind
Holding, hauntingI'm still there, pure trauma
Frame by frame pure trauma
I'm still there
Pure traumaI'm still there, pure trauma
Frame by frame, pure trauma
I'm still thereI'm still there, pure trauma
I'm still there
I'm still there, pure trauma
Pure trauma
