

Up Against the Wall

The Be Good Tanyas

Up against the wall
You don't stand so tall
Better run, run, run put your armor on againShe is 12 years old
Nothing she don't know
She says you're 32 but you wanna be 16I know that you did not receive
What it was that you needed when you were growing?
But tell me what's the worth?
You're repeating history verse by verseWhat do you prove?
No matter what you say I think
You'll lose, you'll lose, you'll lose herUp against the wall
You don't stand so tall
Better run, run, run put your armor on againIsn't it time we recognized that we all live
Such broken lives sometimes
And it's sad but true that you still
Carry so much with you

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>