[lyrics : Isaac]Now you're hardcore, then black metal, next is death and there comes grind oops there's rap and drum 'n bass and techno comes into your sightI'd like to know who you are, I'd like to know if you are realIt's good to have a broad musical taste but don't drop out the underground into mainstream, you change your attitude, your lifestyle, your friends, you fall from one extreme to anotherI'd like to know who you are, I'd like to know if you are realIt's not because you like their music that you have to follow all their friends, do not betray what you stood for,
be yourself, don't be a fuckin' trend!
