

Arm the Masses

For Today

Arm the masses
For too long.
We have lived Like captives
Now we fight for freedom

Arm the masses x2

Godless generation turn around x3

TURN YOUR FACE AWAY!

The weapon I hold,
Seperates soul from spirit.
The weapon I hold,
Is the way of the living God.
What the enternal one has spoken,
He will do

The front lines...are littered...with the bodies of the unarmed.
The front lines...are littered...WITH THE BODIES!!!
So take...your weapon...the time has come for the brave to rise up!
Take...your weapon...the enemy comes to destroy your vision!
The time has come...take your sword and fight!
The time has come...for truth to rise!
The time has come...take your sword and fight!

Truth is all we have in a world of deception...
Defiant, I RISE!
Alive again and equipped with just one weapon...
Defiant, I FIGHT!

He is eternal and supreme in victory...
Defiant, I WILL STAND!
And bow before no one but the living king...
Who holds the world in his hands!
It's time to step up, and tear the system down.
You've been waiting, well now is the time!

Are you the one, who will stand up to a corrupt world system?
Are you the one, that will stand and fight? Now is the time, rise against them! x2

ARE YOU THE ONE? ARE YOU THE ONE? (Stand up!)
