

Happiness Is an Option

Pet Shop Boys

It is not easy
It is not easy Looking from a window
At the back of a house
At the edge of a town
It's gray Like the day when I lost it
Clouds overhead
I talked to a flower
That was almost dead My body a prison
Why did I do it?
Someone told me not to
But still went through it It is not easy
But don't give up now
It is not easy
Happiness is an option Needed somewhere to clear my head
Find some strength, a warmer bed
Maximum love in a minimal world
I'd never achieved it but then I believed it So when I lost it, how?
I'm not sure now
It was a strange feeling
Like a law repealing itself It is not easy
But don't give up now
It is not easy
Happiness is an option It is not easy
But don't give up now
It is not easy
Happiness is an option I can wake up in the morning
And not believe what I see
Look in the mirror
And think if that's really me I don't think I suit my face
It's not a catastrophe
It's more a philosophy Like the Russians wondering why
We're born under a blue sky
But die in a dark forest It is not easy
But don't give up now
It is not easy
Happiness is an option It is not easy
But don't give up now
It is not easy
Happiness is an option This is neither old nor new

It's always, forever
Between sense and ambition
Pleasure and decision We have to make a choice
What do we want?
Everyone is singing
"War, what is it good for?"
While planning the next one? I don't need to win
You don't have to lose
We can choose
It is not easy
Happiness is an option It isn't easy, the war within us
But it gets easier, the more you learn
I don't need to win, you don't have to lose
We can choose, happiness is an option It is not easy
It is not easy
Happiness is an option You don't have to lose
