

Brand New Start

Concrete Knives

Momma said, little boy
You have to go, to shine on
You know it's hard, to leave your home
Hurry up take your bag, walk with pride for'a new start
You walk on earth, for'a new birth
You discover all the things that you missed
You know she's right, hurry up take your bag
Walk with pride for'a new start
All the fences, in front of you
Will disappear if you believe that it's true,
Come on boy, take your bag walk with pride
For a new start

Hoo hooooo

Momma said, little boy
You have to go, to shine on
You know it's hard, to leave your home
Hurry up take your bag, walk with pride for'a new start
You walk on earth, for'a new birth
You discover all the things that you missed
You know she's right, hurry up take your bag
Walk with pride for'a new start (a new start)
All the fences, in front of you
Will disappear if you believe that it's true,
Come on boy, take your bag walk with pride
For a new start

Hoo hooooo

(Hurry up)

Momma said, little boy
You have to go, to shine on
You know it's hard, to leave your home
Hurry up take your bag, walk with pride for'a new start
You walk on earth, for'a new birth
You discover all the things that you missed
You know she's right, hurry up take your bag
Walk with pride for'a new start

All the fences, in front of you
Will disappear if you believe that it's true,
Come on boy, take your bag walk with pride
For a new start
