

Got to Get Better In a Little While

Eric Clapton

Don't you know what's wrong with me?

I'm seeing things I don't want to see.

Sniffing things that ain't no good for me.

I'm going down fast, won't you say a prayer for me?[Chorus:]

It's got to get better in a little while.

It's got to get better in a little while.

It's got to get better in a little while.

It's got to get better in a little while. The sun's got to shine on my guitar someday.

Revolution all across the land.

Just like Sly, you got to take a stand.

Please don't hurt nobody, don't knock them down;

Give them a helping hand to get off the ground.[Chorus]Still one thing that you can do;

Fall down on your knees and pray.

I know the Lord's gonna answer you.

Don't do it tomorrow, do it today.[Chorus]
