Martin Donnelly

Kali's Song lyrics

Give a boy a boat and you've lost him forever;
Give a boy a boat and he'll fly updatess n the sea.
When he comes back home, he'll never be the same.
Give a boy a boat and he's gone.

Chorus:

For the sea called his name long before he was born.
Through the cold winter nights, the sweet summer morn.
Kali loves the sea.

Once he's heard the whine of the wind in the riggin',
Once he's heard the call to his soul from the sea,
Once he's stared wide-eyed into the depths of the ocean,
Give a boy a boat and he's gone.
