The Bluebird

David Sneddon

Listen to your heart and not your head I know that this is what the wise man said Maybe he's wrong... And all this talk of yet another war Contradicits just what the heart is for 'Cause everybody lies Just what is it for?? Everybody cries in the end... But I'm like the bluebird in the sky And you know it's easy if you try Ya can't drag me down 'cause I'm so high! You can let the bluebird fly so high... HA! It only ever rings when no-ones home! Why are you waiting by the phone??! So go outside There is no reason to delay Go out and play So listen to me now because if ya can't believe be afraid Grab your hat. Go out. Do it today. Everybody cries in the end... 'Cause everybody lies Ya can't drag me down 'cause I'm so high! But I'm like the bluebird in the sky And you know it's easy if you try You can let the bluebird fly so high... So listen to me now because if ya can't believe be afraid 'Cause everybody lies Everybody cries in the end... But I'm like the bluebird in the sky Ya can't drag me down 'cause I'm so high! You can let the bluebird fly And you know it's easy if you try You can let the bluebird fly You can let the bluebird fly so high...
