

Show Me

Amerie

Oh yeah

Yeah We were never suppose to go this far for real
Now I see it all so clear, my holding back from you
Just making me want you with me
And now, now were getting all so close
And want everyday a little more of each others touch
What we waiting for See, whenever I lye down to sleep
Thoughts are swimmin' constantly
And I can't deny the love for you I feel
And whenever I tell you I got to go
My heart starts to feel the pain
Wondering when will I see you again I can't pretend I'm feeling like
Feeling like letting you love me
Feel like giving you my heart
Show me all the love that you're feelin'
Show you all the love that I'm feelin'
The love that I'm feelin' Feeling like letting you love me
Feel like giving you my heart
Show me all the love that you're feelin'
Show you all the love that I'm feelin'
The love that I'm feeling, love I'm tryin' think of one good reason for me to stay away
Thinking of the time I spend with you on my mind
It's so hard to be afraid, and whenever I tell you I got to go
My heart starts to feel the pain, oh
And I wonder when will I, I need to see you again, yeah Feeling like letting you love me
Feel like giving you my heart
Show me all the love that you're feelin'
Show you all the love that I'm feelin'
The love that I'm feelin' Feeling like letting you love me
Feel like giving you my heart
Show me all the love that you're feelin'
Show you all the love that I'm feelin' When you touch me
Show me your love, love
The love that you feel
The love that I feel
The love that we feel Your so special baby, yeah
The love that you feel
The love that I feel
The love that we feel Feeling like letting you love me

Feel like giving you my heart
Show me all the love that you're feelin'
Show you all the love that I'm feelin'
The love that I'm feelin' Feeling like letting you love me
Feel like giving you my heart
Show me all the love that you're feelin'
Show you all the love that I'm feelin'
The love that I'm feelin' Give me one good reason
To stay away, stay away, oh
No no no no no no no no
Feeling like letting you love me
Feel like giving you my heart
