Tomorrow

Admiral Twin

We slipped up tripping
Over words we shouldn't say
But then tomorrow
We'll start over anyway
Tonight close your eyes
Give up the fight tonightTomorrow
Let's start over
Tomorrow
Let's start over
With our eyes half closed
Just in case tomorrow never showsIf life's a stage
Then we auditioned
For a play we didn't get
Though this one's tragic
The last act's not over yet
Take five, forget your lines
Let's rewrite tonightTomorrow
We'll start over
Tomorrow
We'll start over
With our fingers crossed
Just in case tomorrow never shows
