

Waiting

Trapt

I wanna meet up with you
And show you what I'm thinking
I'll take you anywhere that you wanna go
I'm sitting here bored and lonely And you know that anytime you're free
To show me how you feel
Well, I'll take it anywhere that you want to go
Anywhere that you wanna go And I'd make it right if you wanted it
I want it back more than you know
I'd cross the line if you wanted it
I want you back I'm waiting for you
To get that feeling once again, reunited in the end
And I've been waiting for you to capture my imagination
'Cause I've been fooled by the illusions in my head, in my head Now I realize I never had it to so good
You took me anywhere I wanted to go
Now I'm sitting here dreaming of the days we led Anytime I wanted I could show you how I feel
I can't go anywhere that I want to go
Anywhere that I wanna go I'd make it right if you wanted it
I want it back more than you know
I'd cross the line if you wanted it
I want you back And I'm waiting for you
To get that feeling once again, reunited in the end
I've been waiting for you to capture my imagination
'Cause I've been fooled by the illusions in my head, in my head I'll take it anywhere, I'll take it anywhere
I'll take it anywhere, I'll take you anywhere you wanna go I'd make it right if you wanted it
I want it back more than you know
I'd cross the line if you wanted it
I want you back And I'm waiting for you
To get that feeling once again, reunited in the end
I've been waiting for you to capture my imagination
'Cause I've been fooled by the illusions in my head
And I've been fooled by the illusions in my head
And I've been fooled by the illusions in my head
