

The Rose of Tears

Dark At Dawn

Futures' light
Shines upon us
In a rainy night
Only one
Little answer
Hides behind your velvet eyes
Lack of love
Doesn't hinder
Men from doing what they please
But just one
Little answer
Tells a victory from defeat Smile for me, my rose of tears You're fading on my mind
Be the one to guide me home
Or leave me far behind
Shine on through like fading stars
But slowly is the light
Before we see their flame has died
A thousand years go by In my eyes
