Lost

Satanic Surfers

You said that there was not much left
To talk about
Nothing left to say
But it seems to me
You're giving up without a fight
Without a struggle
You turn away
You pretend like nothing's wrong
But everything is falling
Lost inside you're mind in a time when everything was fine
So long ago, so long ago it slipped away, it slipped away, you said it wouldn't hurt you
But it was stronger than you
So much stronger than you thoughtI find it hard to find the words to make you understand
I reach out my hand
But I get hurt again
You slipped away, you slipped away, is everything lost?
Is everything lost?
Everything is lost
You pretend like nothing's wrong
But everything has fallenLost inside you're mind in a time when everything was fine
So long ago, so long ago it slipped away, it slipped away, you said it wouldn't hurt you
But it was stronger than you
So much stronger than you thought
