

Thunk

Hanna-Barbera

Sittin' around thinkin'
Thinkin' and a thinkin'
And it ain't doin' me no good
Well, I thunk and thunk
Couldn't think of anything better
I tried and tried, tryin' ain't doin' me no good
I write to you everyday
What could be my very last letter
Come what may I say
Thinkin' ain't doin' me no good, oh
Thinkin' ain't doin' me no good, people
Thinkin' ain't doin' me no good, no good
I want to know
If everything that's sung will remain
Within the structure of the person whose mind I wish to claim
Please don't say that wantin' you
Won't do me no good, no
Please, oh please don't say
Wantin' you ain't doin' me no good, oh
Wantin' you ain't doin' me no good, woman
Wantin' you ain't doin' me no good, no good
Well I thunk, thunk, thunk, thunk a lot about you
Realized my thunk is nothin' but a lot of funk
Bunk down on in my place
Only a dream, hmm
Only a dream, hmm
Only a dream, hmm
Thinkin' ain't doin' me no good, oh
Thinkin' ain't doin' me no good, people
Thinkin' ain't doin' me no good, no good
