

Of Whom Shall I Be Afraid?

Jim Byrnes

I will go wherever you need me
On the river of roses or rain
I will follow the signs that you leave me
The mysteries of joy and of pain
I will search for light in the darkness
Though I stumble through shadow and shade
Oh if you are with me
Of whom shall I be afraid?
Oh if you are with me
Of whom shall I be afraid?
Whom shall I be afraid?

You picked me up when I've fallin'
Driven the ghost from my door
You have comforted me in my sorrow
Wiped my brow when I've been sick and sore
You have shared in all of my triumphs
And bless the crops that we laid
Oh if you are with me
Of whom shall I be afraid?
Oh if you are with me
Of whom shall I be afraid?

(Whom shall I be afraid? Whom shall I be afraid?)

I have wondered at your sacrifice
As I stood at the gates of dawn
Just to love one another that was your advice
And that keeps me (keeps me moving on) it keeps me moving on

(Whom shall I be afraid? Whom shall I be afraid?)

We will stand at the rock together
Hold fast and ride out this storm
We will sing in the rain and windy weather
And we will come to no harm
We will wash in the love and forgiveness
That came with the price that you paid
Oh if you are with me
Of whom shall I be afraid?

Oh if you are with me
Of whom shall I be afraid?
Oh if you are with me of whom (whom shall I be afraid) shall I be afraid

(Never never be afraid, never never be afraid)x8
