Risingson

Massive Attack

I seen you go down to a cold mirror

It was never clearer in my error

So you lick a shine upon your forehead or

Check it by the signs in the corridor

You light my ways through the club maze

We would struggle through the dub dazeI sink myself in hair upon my lover

It's how you go down to the men's room sink

Sad we talk if how madmen think

I sink myself in hair upon my lover

I don't know her from another miss

I don't know you from anotherSee me run now you're gone, dream onWhy you want to take me to this party and breathe

I'm dying to leave

Every time we grind you know we sever lines

Where have all those flowers gone

Long time passing

Why you keep it testing, keep on tasking

You keep on askingToy-like people make me boy-like

Toy-like people make me boy-like

They're invisible, when the trip it flips

They get physical, way below my lips

And everything you got hoi-poloi like

Now you're lost and you're lethal

And now's about atomic you gotta leave all These good people, dream on Nicer than the bird up in the tree top

Cheaper than the chip inside my lap top

All the variations you could do with me

Nicer than the girl up in your mind you're free

Automatic crystal remote control

We come to move your soulYou kinda fade into the background

Like a better smoke'll bring you back round

Like a man slide inside you my dear

Your cheap beer's filled with crocodile tearsSee 'em run now you're gone, dream onToy-like people make me boy-like

Toy-like people make me boy-likeI found a reason

I found a reasonDream on

Dream on

Dream on
