I walk alone
My feelings have grown cold It's beginning of the end leaving this world behind...behindBig walls surround a world I build up for myself My minds perception of the inside segregates into my hellAnimation strokes my dreams Dreams I can't forget Restless thoughts of self distrust are walking through my headStone cold, drawn in sweat Can't sleep late at night
All those things that get me down and keep me close to my demiseAnimation strokes my dreams Dreams I can't forget
Restless thoughts of self distrust
are walking through my headI cry, I cry, cry, cry Times do change, can't wait, only seeing what I've done
Lost no found, minds unsound, from the other side of the line Leave me, and don't ask, now I ... say goodbye to all my cries and lead myself to higher skies... now...Releasing myself into a new dimension it's coming closer...
My soul, it wants to escape, to be released from my body to be free, yeah, to be freeMy lifeshield was getting weak I really didn't see the need Totally conscious and I couldn't stop myself rolling down the hill with speedAnimation strokes my dreams Dreams I can't forget
Restless thoughts of selfdistrust
are walking through my head... through my head... head... head... head... dead... head
